Dear Mom + Dad

Today we are suppose to move.

We are just sitting waiting for choppers now. As you can see I got a huge package from you today. My pack will be heavy for awhile but it is worth it. I finally discovered a use for that pie filling. When you send rust again it goes great with pie filling.

Rumors have it that we will be humping to different night loggers again. I wonder how long it will be before we can sit on a firebase again. Oh well, we never know anything for sure what is going to happen anyway.
